

“Romero” Discussion

Intructions:

- a) Tonight: Pick one (only one) of these questions, or create your own question.
Be prepared to make a brief (2-5 sentence) comment about what the film said to you.

- 1) What do Martin Luther King & Oscar Romero have in common?

- 2) What is the role of hope in resolving conflict?

- 3) If you were to live your life (in your existing set of circumstances) life Romero, what would you need to change?

- 4) In the real world, is a non-violent response to conflict realistic?

- 5) What was the most important inner conflict that Oscar Romero had to struggle with??

- 6) What element's of Adam Curle's "Progression of Conflict" did you see demonstrated in the Romero story?